Section 5.03. 14-Day Rule

(a) All motions, other than motions for summary judgment, together with all affidavits, sworn income and expense statements, depositions, briefs and other matters presented in support of the motion, must be filed and served by personal delivery at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for the hearing on the motion. Rule 7. Setting Cases for Trial and Continuances

Section 7.01. Setting Cases for Trial

Except for divorce and parenting plan actions and cases anticipated to take longer than 3 days to try, cases shall be set for trial in one of the following ways:

- (a) By agreement of counsel after consultation with the Judges' Administrative Assistant, such agreement to be evidenced by a court order;
- (b) By motion; and
- (c) By the court with notice to counsel.

Non-jury trials which are anticipated to require 2 hours or less may be set by agreed order on the regularly scheduled non-jury days. Cases requiring longer than 2 hours, but not longer than one (1) day, may be set by agreement after consultation with the Judges' Office. Domestic cases will be set in accordance with Rule 12 of these Local Rules.

Court schedules shall be prepared, released, posted in the clerk's offices and distributed to the attorneys quarterly for the following six- month period. Attorneys may request electronic mail of the court's schedule by providing their electronic mail address to the judge's office. Cases shall be docketed in the order that the Order setting the case for trial is presented to the clerk of the court.

All motions to set and orders setting a case for trial will include a statement of how long the attorney anticipates the case will take for trial. Any case that the attorney or attorneys anticipate will take longer than three days will be set by motion only.

Section 7.02.           Certifying Cases Ready When Set

(a) When a case is set by agreement or by motion without objection, all counsel are certifying that they, their clients, and their necessary witnesses will be available for trial on the trial date and that all discovery has been completed or will be completed prior to the selected trial date. Where a case is set by the court or by motion over the objection of one or more of the parties, the court will specify a reasonable time within which discovery is to be completed and specify a trial date which falls at least fifteen (15) days thereafter. The failure to have completed discovery, inability to take a deposition, or failure to have completed any other trial preparation will not be grounds for a continuance.

(b) In accordance with Rule 5, all pretrial motions, including motions to exclude evidence, must be filed in time to permit oral argument not later than the last regular motion day before the scheduled trial date. No motions will be argued on the morning of trial.

(c) At the time a case is set for trial, counsel will provide their best, good-faith estimate of the number of trial days reasonably likely to be required to try the case.

(d) For all cases to be tried to a jury, and all non-jury cases where counsel for at least one party estimates the trial to require two or more days to try, the order setting the case for trial shall comply with the provisions of Rule 9 of these Local Rules.

(e) Mediation is a proven and effective method of alternative dispute resolution. Engaging in mediation promotes settlement and enhances the just and efficient resolution of civil litigation. Accordingly, unless approved by the court, no civil action shall be set for trial unless the parties have (i) engaged in good faith mediation without success, or have either, (ii) a firm date set for a mediation, (iii) a deadline pursuant to a scheduling order for completion of mediation, or (iv) an order of the court relieving the parties from the requirements of this rule, at the time they seek to have a case set for trial. This rule does not apply to the following classes of cases: (i) appeals from judgments in the general session court or juvenile court, and (ii) cases seeking termination of parental rights.

Section 9.01. Non-Jury Cases Requiring No More Than One Trial Day

In all civil actions set for trial on the merits where all counsel for the parties estimate in good faith that no more than one day will be required to try the case, at least seventy-two (72) hours (excluding weekends) prior to the date set for trial:

(a) The names and addresses of all witnesses shall be furnished to opposing counsel;

(b) Copies of all exhibits which are proposed to be offered shall be furnished to opposing counsel. When it is impractical to copy exhibits, the proposed exhibits shall be made available for inspection upon reasonable notice; and

(c) In a divorce hearing, either final or temporary, involving alimony and/or child support issues, a property, income, and expense statement in the form attached as Appendix A or Appendix D, as appropriate, shall be filed with the Clerk and a copy furnished to opposing counsel. The parties may also include a proposed division of property and indebtednesses.

A violation of the above may be grounds for exclusion of the evidence.

Section 9.02. Jury Trials and Non-Jury Cases Requiring Two or More Trial Days

In all civil actions set for trial by jury and all non-jury cases where counsel for the parties estimate in good faith that two or more days will be required to try the case, the following procedures shall apply:

(a) Not less than twenty-eight (28) days prior to the trial date, each party shall supplement all prior written discovery responses to the fullest extent required by Rule 26.05(3) of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to relieve any party of the duty seasonably to supplement the party's responses to discovery otherwise required by Rules 26.05(1) and (2).

(b) In cases to be tried to a jury, not less than twenty-eight (28) days prior to the trial date, each party shall file and serve proposed jury instructions and requested verdict form and provide a bench copy to the court. A party requesting an instruction contained in the "then-most-current-edition" of the Tennessee Patterned Jury Instructions (Civil), may comply with this rule by citing to the number of the pattern instruction. A party requesting an instruction not contained in the pattern instructions shall provide the full text of the requested instruction together with appropriate citation to legal authority for the proposed instruction.

(c) Not less than seven (7) days prior to the trial date, the parties shall jointly file a pre-trial statement setting out the following information:

(i) The name of each witness to be called by each party during the presentation of that party's case-in-chief, either in person or by deposition, together with a designation of whether the witness is offered as an expert;

(ii) A designation by page and line number of all deposition excerpts to be offered into evidence in lieu of the live testimony of the deponent witness pursuant to Rules 32.01 (2) and (3) of the Tennessee Rule of Civil Procedure and any objection to such designation;

(iii) A list of all exhibits to be offered by each party into evidence during the presentation of that party's case-in-chief, together with a designation of which exhibits, if any, have been stipulated by the parties to be either authentic and/or admissible in evidence; and

(iv) A concise statement of each party's claims and defenses.

(d) Not less than seven (7) days prior to a non-jury trial, each party shall separately file and serve on all other parties by personal delivery, a pre-trial brief setting forth the party's position and legal argument with respect to the issues to be tried. A party may choose to comply with this Section by filing proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Section 9.03. Customized Case Management

(a) The purpose of customized case management is to provide mandatory, court-supervised case management tailored to the individual needs of appropriate cases. Management of cases is primarily and ultimately the responsibility of the lawyers acting in the best interests of their clients. Customized case management brings to bear the attention and resources of the court to assist the parties in achieving the most efficient planning, scheduling, and progression of the case in order to facilitate the just, speedy, and less costly disposition of civil actions in the 21st Judicial District. Cases appropriate for customized case management are those that present inherent factual, legal, or procedural complexity such that the efficient administration of justice and the interests of the parties will benefit from a greater degree of pre-trial case management.

(b) After the filing of an initial responsive pleading, counsel for either party may, by motion, request that a case be subject to the pre-trial procedures in this Section. The court may, on its own motion, likewise determine that a case be subject to the procedures in this Section. Because the benefits of customized case management are diminished the longer a case is pending, the court will give great weight to the length of time a case has been pending in determining whether the case is appropriate for the procedures of this Section.

(c) A case selected for customized case management will be promptly set for an Initial Case Management Conference which, at the court's discretion, may be held in person with counsel for the parties or by a scheduled telephone conference call. The Initial Case Management Conference shall be conducted in accordance with Rule 26.06 of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure. Prior to the Initial Case Management Conference, counsel for all parties shall, at the initiative of plaintiff's counsel, prepare a proposed case management order that includes to the extent practicable the following elements:

- (i) Whether the court's jurisdiction and the venue of the action are disputed;
- (ii) The parties' theories of the case and their claims and defenses;
- (iii) A proposed discovery plan. In the event the parties are unable to reasonably agree on a proposed discovery plan, each party shall submit the party's own proposed discovery plan; and
- (iv) The identification of any legal issues, the resolution of which may substantially shorten the litigation or length of trial.

(d) The court, on its own motion or the parties by agreement or motion, may schedule subsequent case management conferences as appropriate and necessary for the efficient conduct of the case.

(e) The provisions of Section 9.02 shall apply to all cases subject to this Section.

[Adopted effective September 1, 2004. Amended effective September 1, 2010. Further amended effective December 1, 2014.]

Rule 10. Exhibits

Section 10.01. Depositions and Discovery Material

Depositions and discovery material shall not be filed with the Clerk. Any such material offered into evidence that is not read to the court may be made trial exhibits at the request of either party and subject to approval by the Court.

[Adopted effective September 1, 2004. Amended effective December 1, 2014.]

Section 10.02 Custody of the Clerk

[Adopted effective September 1, 2004. Amended effective September 1, 2010.]

Rule 11. Orders and Judgments

Section 11.01 Preparation and Submission

Unless the court directs otherwise, attorneys for prevailing parties will prepare proposed orders for entry by the court and shall file such proposed orders not more than seven (7) days following the day on which the ruling is made by the court. If the proposed order submitted reflects that it has been approved for entry by counsel for all parties, then the court will take action promptly to enter such proposed order, or, at the court's discretion, enter the court's own order with respect to the ruling. If the proposed order does not reflect that it has been approved for entry by counsel for all parties, then the court will take no action to enter such proposed order for seven (7) days after receipt of the proposed order to afford counsel for the opposing party to submit an alternative proposed order. If the opposing party submits an alternative proposed order, the court shall undertake promptly to enter either the original proposed order, the alternative proposed order, or the court's own order with respect to the ruling. All of the time periods in this section may, for good cause, be extended by the court.

A party's approval for entry of a proposed order, which does not by its express terms state that it is an agreed order, shall not be construed as anything other than the party's agreement that the proposed order accurately reflects the court's ruling on the particular matter and shall not be construed to imply that party's agreement with or consent to the ruling set out in the proposed order.

[Adopted effective September 1, 2004. Amended effective September 1, 2010. Further amended December 1, 2014.]

Section 11.02 Non-Minute Entry Orders

Orders not affecting the legal course of an action, such as orders setting a case for trial or acting upon a request for a continuance, may be designated by the clerk as a non-minute entry order. Such designated order shall be placed in the file of the case but not spread upon the minutes of the court.

Section 11.03 Court Costs

(a) All final judgments shall provide for the taxing of court costs.

(b) Whenever it appears to the clerk that a judgment has been satisfied but that court costs have not been paid, the clerk may apply to the court for a retaxing of court costs. The clerk shall notify the parties of the application and the date and time it will be considered by the court.

[Adopted effective September 1, 2004. Amended effective September 1, 2010.]

Rule 12. Divorce and Child Parenting Hearings

Section 12.01. Parenting Seminars

The Clerk of the court shall maintain a list of organizations or individuals that have been approved by the court to conduct these seminars. A copy of the list shall be served on the opposing party along with the summons and complaint. If a party is waiving service of process, waiver of service shall be filed with the Clerk and the Clerk shall mail a copy of the list to that party.

[Adopted effective September 1, 2004. Amended effective September 1, 2010. Further amended December 1, 2014.]

Section 12.02 Temporary Parenting and Support Hearings and Orders

Section 12.02(a) Agreement of the Parties

If approved by the court, the plan will govern the parenting and support arrangements between the parties during the pendency of the divorce action.

Section 12.02(b) Failure of the Parties to Reach an Agreement

At the hearing of this issue, each of the parties to the divorce action shall submit a proposed Temporary Parenting Plan and shall submit an affidavit of income and expenses in the form outlined in Appendix B attached hereto. The court will either adopt one of the plans submitted, appropriately alter and adopt one of them or may, in the court's discretion, hear additional testimony before determining a Temporary Parenting Plan.

(c) Parenting Plans and income and expense forms will be available in each clerk's office and also may be found under Rules of Practice at the Williamson County, Tennessee website, <http://www.williamsoncounty-tn.gov/index.aspx?nid=242>.

[Adopted effective September 1, 2004. Amended effective September 1, 2010. Further amended effective December 1, 2014.]

If at this hearing the court is satisfied the case is ready for trial the action will be set for a date certain.

[Adopted effective September 1, 2004. Amended effective September 1, 2010.]

Section 12.04      Non-Contested Divorces and Parenting Actions

Where divorce cases are grounded on irreconcilable differences or are submitted on stipulated grounds, it is not necessary to move for a default judgment provided the facts giving the court jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter are recited under oath either in the complaint or by separate affidavit. A defendant who has not filed an answer must specifically waive service of process and the filing of an answer in the marital dissolution agreement or by separate affidavit.

(b) Children. (2) All pre-trial motions, other than requests for discovery, shall be filed within 30 days of the date discovery is furnished by the state to the defense, and shall be heard on the Court's next regular motion day unless otherwise set for hearing on a date approved by the Court.

(2) On the review date for each particular case, it shall be the responsibility of the district attorney, or his or her assistant to advise the court that the defendant has failed to provide discovery per reciprocal agreement or as requested pursuant to Rule 16, T.R.Cr.P.

(3) Upon the determination of the existence of any of the circumstances set forth in this section, the trial court may continue the review date and may make such further orders as may be appropriate for the timely disposition of pretrial proceedings.

(4) Any circumstance not called to the attention of the court in accordance with this section shall not be considered as a ground for continuance of the trial of the case.

RULE 3. SETTING CASES FOR TRIAL.

All motions for continuance made prior to the date of trial or hearing shall be filed in writing, shall state the reason the continuance is being sought and shall either be sworn to or be supported by sworn affidavit. No agreements to continue a case will be approved unless a date has been agreed upon for resetting the hearing or trial being continued.

Section 4.03. Any request for a continuance in a case where the defendant is charged with a crime of violence involving death or serious bodily injury that will cause the trial of the case to be delayed beyond 180 days from the date of the indictment shall be accompanied by a proposed certificate in compliance with T.C.A. §40-38-105 setting forth the reasons the case is still pending before the court.

Section 4.04. It is expected that a case where the defendant is charged with a crime of violence involving death or serious bodily injury shall be given priority in scheduling and selection of cases for trial over cases not involving such a charge.
